national banks will reach 230 or 240 million dollars.

The report for September 15, shows deposits of $123,057,097.78, as against $113,208,207.38 on September 12, 1914. In addition to this increase of nearly 16 million dollars in one year, the loans and discounts took comparatively big jumps. Loans and discounts in September, 1914, were $100,619,609.05. This year they climbed nearly 18 million to the $118,160,836.86 mark. The reserve decreased from 31.6 per cent in 1914 to 27 per cent this year. As the legal reserve is 12 per cent, the banks are far above the requirement.

When the report for June 23 was issued, it showed deposits of $129.518,793.31, the record for the state. From June to September Kansas Ass compelled to meet her regular Aspenses without additional revenue. As a result it was believed that a siump of five or six million collars might be expected in the report of September 15. TODAY'S MARKET REPORT.

Chicago, Oct. 14—WHEAT—Wheat prices underwent a setback today, influenced largely by the failure of the Liverpool market to respond to the advance yesterday on this side of the Atlantic. There were bearish advices also of shipments aggregating nearly one million bushels from North Russian ports to France. Excellent weather to promote the movement from farms in Minnesota and the Dakotas tended further to handleap the bulls. Opening prices, which ranged from ½c to 1½c lower with December at $1.06% to $1.07%, and May at $1.07% to $1.08%, were followed by some additional declines, and then a raily.

Buying of future on European account lower with December at $1.00% to $1.07%, and May at $1.07% to $1.08%, were followed by some additional declines, and then a raily.

Buying of future on European account here and on the part of millers at Minneapolis led afterward to a decided uptura but the effect failed to last. Reports of the possibility of a new foreign credit in the United States accompanied the temporary buige. The close was heavy, 17%@2c to 2%c net lower, with December at $1.06% @1.06% and May at $1.07%.

CORN—Corn sagged owing to improvement in the weather and as a result of the depression in wheat. There was none of yesterday's urgent covering by shorts. After opening %@%c off to a shade up, prices steadled at a little under the lowest figures at the start.

Subsequently the market rose with wheat, but the recovery was not held. The finish was weak, %@id down to %c up compared with yesterday's close.

OATS—Traders in oats took their cue from the action of other grain. Demand was slow.

PROVISIONS—Selling by packers weak was slow.
PROVISIONS—Selling by packers weak-ened provisions. At first, however, the market had an upward slant with hogs.
